11. Interpretation
In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Agency” means the National Agency for Food and Drug Administration and Control;

“Alcohol of agricultural origin” means alcohol obtained from fermentation of agricultural products;

“Blended spirit” means spirit obtained from alcohol of agricultural origin and permitted additives with or without sugar(s); and

“Blending” means combining two or more spirit drinks of the same category, distinguished only by minor differences in composition due to one or more of the following factors:
(a) the method of preparation;
(b) the stills employed;
(c) the period of maturation or ageing;
(d) the geographical area of production.

"Food" means any substance, whether processed, semi-processed or raw, which is intended for human consumption, and includes drinks, chewing gum and any substance which has been used in the manufacture, preparation or treatment of "food" but does not include cosmetics or tobacco or substances used only as drugs.

Maturation or ageing
Maturation or ageing means allowing certain reactions to develop naturally in appropriate containers, thereby giving the spirit drink in question organoleptic qualities previously absent.

“Spirit drink” means an alcoholic beverage:
(a) intended for human consumption;
(b) having particular organoleptic properties peculiar to that class of drinks;
(c) which contains a minimum alcoholic strength of 15% vol; and
(d) which shall be produced by one of the following methods -
   i. directly by distillation, with or without added flavouring from naturally fermented products, or
   ii. by the maceration of vegetable substances, or
   iii. the addition of flavourings, sugars or other sweetening products or other agricultural products or a combination of two or more of the above to ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin, or
   iv. by the mixture of a spirit drink with one or more other spirit drinks or ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin or distillates of agricultural origin or other alcoholic beverages and drinks;
v. by blending potable ethyl alcohol of agricultural origin with spirit concentrates, natural flavourings, permitted food colours, sugars or permitted sweetening agents.
vi. “Geographical indication” shall be an indication which identifies a spirit drink as originating in the territory of a country, or a region or locality in that territory, where a given quality, reputation or other characteristic of that spirit drink is essentially attributable to its geographical origin.

12. Repeal of 2005 Regulations
   (1) The Spirit Drink Regulations 2005 is hereby repealed.
   (2) The repeal of these Regulations specified in Regulations 11(1) shall not affect anything done or purported to be done under the repealed Regulations

13. Citation.
    These Regulations shall be cited as Spirit Drink Regulations 2019
